

Student Conference

Department of Economics

May 10, 2024

Sponsors

John Jay College Economics Club
John Jay College Law and Political Economy Society

Schedule

10am-11am Breakfast (Haaren Hall 336)

11am-1pm Presentations

1pm-2pm Lunch (Haaren Hall 336)

2pm-4pm Presentations

4pm Food and Party (Haaren Hall 336)

Panels

Panel 1: Political Economy, Economic History, and Regulation

Time: 11am to 1pm, Room 1.63

Professors: Geert Dhondt (Chair), Christian Parenti, Carolyn Hietter, Thomas Herndon, Brian Callaci, JW Mason, Cyrus Cappo, Caitlin Kline

Alexander Richwine Planning Over Profits: The Once-Strong Basis for Price Regulation in the U.S.

Lisa Haye Nuclear Neocolonialism: The Political Economy of the Yucca Mountain Repository

Brandon Aponte Chains of Progress: How Legislative Forces Shape the Socio-Economic Terrain of the English Working Class

Neil La-Mothe BlackRock's Influence on the Financialization of the South Korean Emerging Economy

Ethan Vallejera The Great Depression

Panel 2: Economic Development: Globalization, Oil, Health, and Environment

Time: 11am to 1pm, Room 1.65

Professors: Zhun Xu (Chair), Lygia Sabbag Fares, Ian Seda, Jay Hamilton, Nate Wright, Matt Rosales, Joseph Rebello

Miguel Lozano Polluted Promises: The Harsh Realities of Oil Industry in Nigeria's Niger Delta.

Jenny Mayo The Bittersweet Truth: Coca-Cola's Influence on Mexico's Health Landscape

Reanna Mason Evaluating the Negative Impact of Globalization on the Economies of Developing Countries

Venkatram Gopal Does Nationalizing Oil Lead To Better Economic Outcomes? Case Studies in Mexico

Manuel Tejada The Green and the Greed: Brazil's Economic Growth

Panel 3: Economic Policy

Time: 2pm to 4pm, Room 1.66

Professors: JW Mason (Chair), Thomas Herndon, Christian Parenti, Jay Hamilton

Alexandra Altman Free Money In the Form Of Universal Basic Income: The Theories Behind It and How It Could Be Funded

Keiana Miller Immigrant women and Wage Theft: To what extent can wage theft criminalization begin to address gender and citizenship disparities in wage theft

Surujdai Mukhram Unraveling the Paradox: Exploring Factors Behind Rising Costs in New York City's Jail System

Karim Adnane Revisiting Gentrification: A New Metric for NYC

Lenny DeFranco An Ideal of Agglomeration

Panel 4: Land, Labor, and Capital

Time: 2pm to 4pm, Room 1.67

Professors: Lygia Sabbag Fares(Chair), Matt Rosales, Joseph Rebello, Ian Seda, Nate Wright

Martin Yim Input-output Methods, Investment Planning, and Technological Change

Wilson Korik Towards a Socialized Economy: Learning from Land Policies in the USSR and Singapore

Jeffery Mejia Bridging the Gap: Capital Investment and Income-Led Economic Development

Celia Karpe Pretty Pennies in Production and Circulation: A Critical Review

Valerios Samcharidis Exploring the Economic Realities of Triple-A vs. Indie Games

Panel 5: The Social Context and Consequences of Markets

Time: 2pm to 4pm, Room 1.69

Professors: Caroline Hietter (Chair), Cyrus Cappo, Geert Dhondt, Caitlin Kline, Thomas Herndon

Edgar Delgado Corporate Personhood: Unveiling Its Impact and Critiquing Its Operations

Brittany Lal The Effects of Racism and Unemployment on Economic Growth

Yunus Khan The Economic Heartbeat of New York City: Population, Wealth, and Economic Resilience

Oskar Dye-Furstenberg Decarbonization and Market Power

Ashline Anane The Socioeconomic Impacts of Fast Fashion in Bangladesh

For updates: johnjayeconomics.org/event/conference2024/